Participant Terms:

Net thirty (30) days from the date invoiced. All rates are subject to change without notice; however, contracts in effect will be maintained until the conclusion of the contract. ICF Promotions reserves the right to cancel any contract with 30 days' notice as well as reject any sale at any time. Participants failing to provide booth material on time for set-up will have the responsibility of doing it themselves no assistance will be provided. If the participant is a "no show" the Organizers/ICF will fill the space and the participant will be liable for a charge of 50% of the contracted rate.

EXHIBITOR STANDARD CONTRACT

Cancellations as well as changes in the contract may not be made after deadline closing date. Any cancellations made after this date will be assessed a 25% cancellation fee. Cancellations must be in writing and will take effect upon writing notice by ICF Promotions.

All Participants are responsible to present at the time of arrival an original copy of their Liability Insurance coverage (300,000/500,000) holding ICF harmless free of any damage caused by their exhibition. All Exhibitions/Booths will be promptly dismantled by the participant once the event has concluded. ICF will NOT be responsible for any material, equipment or other left in the location after the event has officially ended. ICF is not responsible for any offer, promise or agreement made by the participant and the guest invited to the show.

I agree on all term and condition of this contract including those specified on any and all signed attachments:
